Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Black History Month is observed in February of each year; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month seeks to emphasize Black history and its cultural contributions to American life, and is designed to recognize and pay tribute to the many contributions of African Americans to the history, society and culture of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month celebrates the achievements of African Americans in the Arts, Civil Rights, Education, Entertainment, Government, History, Law, Literature, Medicine, Military, Music, Politics, Science, Sports, and other endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month allows us an opportunity to recognize the heroes of African American history including James West, U.S. inventor of more than 250 patents and Professor at John Hopkins University; Marie M. Daly, the first African-American woman to receive a Ph.D. in chemistry in the U.S., who taught and conducted research regarding foods and diet and their effect on the heart and the circulatory system; and Katherine G. Johnson, one of NASA's human computers who performed the complex calculations that enabled humans to successfully achieve space flight; and

WHEREAS In 1976, as part of the nation's bicentennial, Black History Week was expanded and became established as Black History Month, and is now celebrated all over North America; and

WHEREAS, After the Civil War, many black Americans sought a better life, free from oppression and in search of new economic opportunities, and the liberty to create their own lives; and

WHEREAS, Black History Month celebrates New Jersey's first Black congressman Donald Payne and our first Black congresswoman Bonnie Watson Coleman; and

WHEREAS, the observation of Black History Month calls our Nation's attention to the continued need to battle racism and to build a society that lives up to its Democratic ideals.

NOW THEREFORE, I Mayor Nick Kappatos do hereby proclaim February 2021 as Black History Month and urge all citizens to celebrate our diverse heritage and culture and continue our efforts to create a world that is more just, peaceful and prosperous for all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand this 2nd day of February, 2021.
